Eulogy of Col. Nesmith on Senator Douglas.

MR. PRESIDENT—though my personal acquaintance with Mr. Douglas was brief, it was of a nature to inspire me with admiration for his character, and fill my heart with gratitude for acts of personal kindness extended to me when I arrived in this capital for the first time in January last.

My silence on this occasion would not only do violence to my own feelings, but would be in sad contrast with the sorrowful emotions of the people whom I, in part, represent, and who have just cause to mourn the loss of a friend and benefactor.

By the side of Illinois, Oregon claims the position of chief mourner at the portals of the tomb of the great Douglas. From the commencement of his congressional career to the day of his death we had no such devoted friend and able advocate. In the contest growing out of our boundary question, in 1846, he was a strenuous advocate of our territorial integrity; and in the same year he reported a bill in the House of Representatives to give us a territorial organization. Again, in 1847, in this body, he reported another bill for the same purpose. He was also an efficient advocate of our admission as a State of the Union. His voice was always raised in our behalf, and in behalf of humanity, when we called upon Congress for protection, against savages who surrounded us, or for indemnification for losses suffered at their hands. During the long period that he was chairman of the Committee on Territories, Oregon Territory never appealed to him in vain; while your records show that we have been the constant recipients of his aid since our admission as a State.

In addition to the debt of gratitude which we owe for his public services in our behalf, his memory will long be cherished in the hearts of many of the early settlers in Oregon, who were his neighbors, friends, and constituents, in Illinois.

These considerations, Mr. President, cause us to appreciate the melancholy fact that we have been deprived of a patron, friend and benefactor. We are sadly conscious that our friend has fallen, and those of us who recognized him as our party chieftain, and were proud to award him the position in politics and statesmanship which his great Scottish namesake once held as the gallant leader of his clansmen in war, can hardly realize that we have listened to his slogan for the last time.

Inexorable death has paralyzed that gigantic intellect, but the memory of its noble achievements will never die; and millions yet unborn while struggling with adversity will be pointed to his noble career as a beacon of light to guide them in the pathway of honorable usefulness and patriotic renown.

> "In lofty thought, and in bewildering fight,
> A cloud by day, a pillar'd flame by night,
> He pointed us onward, onward to the goal;
> Leading on legions with his vast control;
> Implanting truth, the idol of his soul."

In our present unfortunate difficulties Mr. Douglas rose above the partisan; and early in the last session, just after a heated political contest, he involuntarily declared that by-gones with him should be forgotten, while his energies were devoted to the preservation of the Union which he loved so well. He resorted to every honorable expedient to avert from his country the horrors of sectional strife, and the shedding of fraternal blood, until forbearance ceased to be a virtue, and until treason, with unparalleled audacity, threatened the very existence of the Government. It was then that he appealed in patriotic language to the gallant sons of his own State and the great Northwest to rally in defense of the Union, the Constitution and the Laws, though under the administration of a President whose advent to power he had opposed with all the energy of his mighty intellect. Less patriotic partisans have been known, while smarting under defeat, to contribute to the overthrow of a Government which they were not permitted to administer. By his voluntary acts he furnished the strongest possible evidence that with him the preservation of the Union and the Constitution were paramount to all other considerations. His memory will be held in reverence so long as the history of our government is preserved, and while a single human mind is imbued with a belief in the capacity of man for self-government.

It is a source of gratification to know that the manly courage and heroic fortitude which so eminently characterized our friend in life, did not forsake him in the hour of his greatest trial. A consciousness of his own rectitude of purpose during a well-spent life inspired him with the courage to meet the inevitable fate which awaits us all, and to look with composure upon the valley and shadow of death.

Mr. President, in common with the people of Oregon, I mourn the loss of our benefactor. As a humble member of a powerful political organization, in common with thousands, I mourn the loss of our gallant chieftain and party leader, under whose proud banner we fought and followed in the forlorn hope.

I mourn the loss of the kind-hearted, generous, and noble personal friend who gave me counsel and advice. Yet more, I mourn the irreparable loss which the nation and the Union sustain in being deprived of the patriotic counsels of his heart in this hour of our greatest trial.

HENRY L. PITTOCK

Treason and Blasphemy

The Corvallis Union of the 12th instant has a long editorial congratulating him[illegible] and the country on the late victory of the rebels at Bull's Run, and indulging his [illegible] characteristic denunciations against the Government for attempting to put down the great Southern rebellion. The whole article is a [illegible] tissue of wilful misrepresentations of facts and a studied perversion of the objects for which the war on the rebels is being prosecuted by the government, and as if determined to cap the climax of infamy and secure for himself the immortality of a traitor's doom, by insulting beyond endurance the great body of the people of Oregon, whose hearts are now bleeding at the temporary reverse of their patriot army,—he indulges in the following strain of blatant treason, and wicked and unblushing blasphemy—the publication of which in a Union loving community, without a manifestation of public indignation, shows us to be a law-abiding people under all the circumstances of the times:

"What of the thousand prayers that have been daily and hourly put up to the God of battles, invoking Him to fight the battles of the North? How have they been answered? Has the Almighty been deaf to the B[illegible]ers, the Cheevers [illegible] the three thousand Clergymen of New England, not to say the shining lights in Oregon, who have importuned him for victory and success? [illegible] [illegible] resolved that as God has taken into His own hands the abolition of slavery they will stand still and see His glory. Wonder if they have seen any glimpses of that glory as the lightning from Bull's Run flashed the intelligence of the capture of forty negroes by the South and the complete overthrow of the invading army? Superstition was supposed [illegible] [illegible] its heighth in the dark ages, and the [illegible]teenth century was supposed to have driven [illegible] upon its retreating [illegible] but it would seem that there is still abundance of superstition in the enlightened North. The self righteous portions who have been insulting High heaven with their vain petitions, might learn from this defeat, that prayers will not win a battle, that if they expect to whip the South into submission they must fight as well as pray."

Not one word is said by this traitor of the numerous defeats of the rebels in Western Virginia and in Missouri or of the 80 wagons and 200 tents and the thousand prisoners captured by the gallant General McClellan at and near Beverly.

It seems that one of the chief reasons why the Government troops failed to route the rebels from their stronghold at Manassas Junction, was because our camp was infested with just such traitorous spies as the "Union" man and a few of the same class we have in Oregon,—who furnished the enemy with timely notice of our army's movements and instructions—and while acting under the hypocritical professions of being friends to the Union and Government which had cherished and protected them, [illegible] and persecutingly, engaged in plotting their overthrow

Hereafter, we trust that our camps will be cleared from "wolves in sheep's clothing," and that the success of our army will render it certain that we have a Country, a Union and a Government

Lady Franklin and her niece have gone to see the "Big Trees."

APPOINTMENTS.—It is generally understood that a number of additional appointments for Oregon and Washington Territory are now on the way from Washington. The tardiness with which these appointments have been made, has been a subject of some complaint. The following note from the Secretary of the Interior to Col. Baker, will explain the cause of the delay:—

DEPARTMENT INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., June 14, 1861.

HON. E. D. BAKER—Dear Sir: I have the pleasure to inform you that the commissions for the new officers in Oregon recommended [illegible] [illegible] has been signed by the President, and will be immediately forwarded. The recommendations were filed by you some two months ago, but owing to the great press of public business, the President has not before been able to give attention to the subject.

Very resp'y,
CALEB B SMITH.

A gentleman who was in Washington early in the Spring, and remained there several weeks, writes us: "I know of my own personal knowledge, that Col. Baker's letters of recommendation for all principal appointments, to be made from the Department of the Interior, were filed in that office as early as the 20th of March, and Col. Baker received the assurance from the Secretary that they should be attended to without delay. Col. Baker was afterwards assured at different times that the matter would be attended to."

The public interests have undoubtedly suffered in the delay of action in making the appointments on the part of Government, but it is readily seen, when all the facts in the case are considered, that censure does not attach to Col. Baker.

REBEL BARBARITIES.—It makes one's blood curdle [illegible] the double operation of freezing and [illegible] to read the apparently well authenticated [illegible] [illegible] the brutal treatment received by some of our wounded at the hands of the rebels. The New York Post says that [illegible] [illegible] case of murdering wounded soldiers [illegible] [illegible] its own knowledge:

"At the battle of Bull's Run, William Wilson, of this city, was carrying a wounded comrade, [illegible] [illegible], from the field. When Glidden implored Wilson to leave him. 'I shall die at any rate,' said he, 'and the rebels may overtake and kill you. They will not hurt me when they see that I am wounded.' So he left him in the ground, and looking back when the rebels came up he saw one of them take out his knife and deliberately cut Glidden's throat from ear to ear, almost severing his head from his body. Wilson and Glidden were members of the Fire Zouave regiment, and were well known in this city."

The Post's Washington correspondent says:

"At the left of the line of battle, Bethlehem Church was likewise filled with the suffering, and it was said to be there that before the sun went down the enemy had put to death all that were left at both these places, as well as the enemy wounded not removed from the field of battle. If report be true, and there is little reason to doubt it, no quarter was given, either to the sick, the wounded, or their attendants."

The following is from the Baltimore American:

"Captain Downey, of the Fire Zouaves, was wounded on the field of battle, and his body was afterwards found literally cut in pieces. His head had been [illegible] quarters.

"A[illegible] [illegible] who was taken prisoner with six others, and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] escape, arrived here to-night with a broken handcuff on one wrist. He reports that he was treated with [illegible] barbarity by the rebels, and that many of the prisoners were [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] with bayonets thrown at them."

MISSOURI.—All [illegible] of Springfield [illegible] there were no apprehensions of an attack from Jackson. Jackson's forces are reported as follows: Under [illegible] Parsons, 2,500 men; under Rains, 3,000 men; under McCulloch (Arkansas troops) 2,500. In all 7,000. McCulloch's troops are tolerably well armed. In one of his regiments there are nearly 300 [illegible] slaves [illegible] military duty, and [illegible] whose services the rebels promise to [illegible]. The State rebels are very poorly armed. The country through which they have traveled has been entirely laid waste. All the [illegible] and grain have been seized. Hundreds of families have deserted their houses and are trying to leave the State. Many of them are camped round Gen. Lyon's camp in [illegible] tents, where they stay for protection.

Hundreds are daily coming in from Arkansas and Texas, driven out by the rebels. They represent that if the Federal Government would send a force and arms to arm the people, more than one half in both States would fight for the Union.

REBEL MOVEMENTS ON THE MISSISSIPPI.—The New Albany Ledger professes to have received intelligence that 12,000 troops have recently crossed the Mississippi from Tennessee to New Madrid, where they have been joined by considerable reinforcements from Southeast Missouri.

With accessions from Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas and Missouri, it is stated that there will shortly be an army at New Madrid of 50,000 men, tolerably well supplied with artillery. Their object is to make a speedy attack upon Cairo. The Ledger also adds that simultaneous with an attack on Cairo, there will be an attack upon Washington City.

Horace Greeley

The St. Louis correspondent of the Sacramento Union writes, under date of August 4th: "Greeley seems suddenly to have resumed the editorial control of the Tribune [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] has bull[illegible] Greeley, and [illegible] [illegible] of the [illegible] [illegible]. But the defeat of the United States army at Manassas has brought out Greeley. The following is from his paper:

[illegible] [illegible] with [illegible] the Republic [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] was right in the premises [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and that we [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] wrong.

We [illegible] [illegible] set our own [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] in the premises, and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Gen. Scott has been [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] he says [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] truth. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the rebels [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Manassas [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] planning the attack [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] unaware of their strength.

The Tribune [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] on the subject of the Cabinet [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] demanded the resignation of every member of the Cabinet [illegible] [illegible] says:

'We pray the President to [illegible] [illegible] of his present constitutional advisers. The public will [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] pronounced against any change at present. Such a step would have almost unfortunate influence on the public mind. We cannot afford such a manifestation in the face of our [illegible] and [illegible] foes. All together now, and let us try to [illegible] the good ship off the breakers.'"

NEW CALL IN NEW YORK FOR 25,000 MEN.—On the [illegible] July, Gov. Morgan issued his proclamation for an additional force of 25,000 three years' men from this State, and appointing three rendezvous, one at New York, one at Albany, and a third at Elmira. The [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] in this city. Three full regiments from [illegible]'s brigade have already [illegible] [illegible], and one more if not two from the same source, will be ready next week. The Irish regiment Col. Rudolph [illegible], the [illegible] [illegible], Col. Hamilton, the Washington Greys, Col. Moore, and Thompson's regiment, are all accepted by the Department, and will soon be got ready for the field. At a meeting of Germans in the city it was determined to form a regiment of Germans and to arm them with scythes.

ARMS FOR KENTUCKY.—A San Francisco paper of the 14th says, that the guard of 20 United States soldiers under a Lieutenant who accompanied the Sonora were detailed to Gen. Sumner to protect fifteen hundred boxes of rifled muskets and Minie rifles—thirty thousand stands in all—shipped to New York. We have not learned whether Gov. Downey was consulted of the shipment. It may not be generally known that our State is well supplied with arms. Deducting the thirty thousand stand sent East by the Sonora, there remains at the disposal of General Sumner full fifty thousand Minie rifles and rifled muskets in the State.

THE TREASON OF THE SOUTH TO LOUIS BONAPARTE.—The Paris correspondent of Mr. [illegible] of the New York [illegible], [illegible] since [illegible] that the Southern Commissioners in Paris had offered to make Count [illegible] Bonaparte Dictator of their Confederacy. The following extract from a private letter written by an American who has resided in Paris for some years, which is published in the Boston Traveller, confirms the story:

"Madame Bonaparte told me the other day, that one day at dinner Faulkner, the American Minister, said to her, 'Many of us ardently wish to see your grandson on [illegible] Imperial [illegible].' Respect for the gentleman at whose table she was dining alone prevented her from [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. Mr. Faulkner [illegible] though he [illegible] has seen evil days, although one member of it was a [illegible] and another a [illegible], yet, thank God, it has never yet had a traitor."

CITY.

Receipts of Gold Dust.—Some $30,000 in gold dust was brought down last night, by Tracy & Co's Express, from the Nez Perces mines, besides a large amount in the hands of passengers.

On Fire Again.—Yesterday afternoon the roof of Mr Gibson's machine shop [illegible] caught fire from a spark. It was extinguished without any alarm. Our Fire Wardens should inquire into it.

Arrival of the Sierra Nevada.—The Sierra Nevada, Capt. Wakeman, arrived yesterday morning from San Francisco. She brings no later news than the last that we have received by the [illegible].

Wells, Fargo & Co's gentlemanly messenger, Chas. Morgan, furnished us with a large file of papers.

Memoranda.—The steamship Sierra Nevada, [illegible] Wakeman, left San Francisco Aug. 17th at [illegible] M. Crossed the Columbia river bar Aug. [illegible] at [illegible] M., and arrived at Portland Aug. [illegible] at [illegible] A. M. [illegible] the first 12 hours out from San Francisco [illegible] unusually heavy weather. The following is a list of the Passengers.—[illegible] Mr Heyman, Miss Heyman, Miss Smith, [illegible], Mrs Hurd and [illegible], Mrs A D [illegible] and [illegible], C C Hewitt, D I Phillips, [illegible], J R McCune, [illegible], W O [illegible], John Poole, Mrs [illegible], Chas Morgan, W F & Co's messenger, and 131 others.

CHAS. D. HAYES, Purser.

The steamer Sierra Nevada brought up about two hundred tons of freight. She sails this afternoon at four o'clock for Victoria.

The bark Industry leaves this morning for Oak Point to take in a cargo of lumber for San Francisco.

Military Promotions on this Coast.—The following promotions in the army of the Pacific are published for the information of those whom they may concern. Brevet Major W. W Mackall, to be Assistant Adjutant General, with the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel; Brevet Major E. B. Babbitt, Assistant Quartermaster, (stationed at Vancouver, W. T.) to be Quartermaster, with the rank of Major; Brevet-Major Robert Allen, Assistant Quartermaster, (stationed at Benicia formerly) to be Quartermaster, with the rank of Major; Robt. E. Clary, Jr., to be Second-Lieutenant, Second Dragoons.

The Feeling in New York.—In Broome county, a few leading secessionists were so elated with the defeat that they called a public meeting under the pretence of taking measures for the reorganization of the Democratic party, but the affair proved to be a miserable failure. Not so the call for the meeting of the Democracy on the succeeding night, for the purpose of upholding with their voices the cause of the Administration, and pledging the party anew to its fealty to the Stars and Stripes. This meeting was attended by upwards of 5,000 persons, including Daniel S. Dickinson, who made a stirring speech on the occasion.

Movement of the Rebels for the Interior of Missouri.

The rebels are preparing to move toward the interior of Missouri from the south east portion of the State, or else they are making tremendous exertions as a feint to cover operations in the vicinity of Neosho, or a movement on Springfield. Several boat loads of troops have been sent from Memphis and Union City to New Madrid, Mo., and there is great activity among the rebels who have been concentrating for some time past in the country back of Bird's Point, and extending from Bloomfield towards the Arkansas line. It is reported from Cairo that there are 3,000 rebels within eight miles of Charleston, which is only twenty miles from Bird's Point, on the partially finished Cairo and Fulton railroad; also that there are 8,000 men between New Madrid and Charleston, and further that there are 11,000 men at New Madrid. This would make a total of 19,000 troops. The estimate is probably exaggerated. At Cairo and Bird's Point there are about 10,000 men, strongly fortified, and able, it is believed, to repel any assault. Fremont's expedition, and the regiments at Cape Girardeau, and others who can be spared from Cairo, will be about 6,000 strong—hardly sufficient, it is feared to attack the rebels at New Madrid. Beside the latter troops have been in camp several weeks, and are in excellent fighting condition, whereas a majority of those with Fremont have been recently enlisted and are comparatively raw recruits.

If the rebels design to attack Bird's Point they will be repelled, probably—on the other hand if they assume the defensive and erect batteries at New Madrid and await Fremont's arrival, they promise to make the Unionists trouble. At the same time the policy appears to be not to allow them time to throw up impregnable fortifications, and prepare for an obstinate defense. The general supposition in St. Louis is that the object of the rebels in moving from Tennessee into Missouri is to proceed onward toward the heart of the State, but Fremont's expedition will compel them to alter their plans and assume the defensive. Gen Pillow commands the invading troops. He says he is going to Missouri to drive out the population opposed to the secessionists—that the rebels march under the banner of "Booty and Beauty," and he will give no quarter to them.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it as well as its proprietor far above the results of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy with others an equally lofty position in the profession. Broad [illegible] example [illegible] among the philosophical stars [illegible] in Europe and Dr Czapkay has [illegible] in this country, as a proof of which the Philadelphia College of Medicine [illegible] him with a Diploma [illegible] as his field of operation [illegible] as a graduate of the University of Pesth and late Chief Surgeon [illegible] army [illegible] extended labors Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases in which he has been so great an expert that he is now regarded as the [illegible] in the branch [illegible] in the United States, and [illegible] are published as matter of interest [illegible] The [illegible] offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. Portland, May 16, 1861 dy

Commercial and Financial.

Since our last, in view of the new tariff, there is an increased firmness in Sugar, Coffee and Tea, with an upward tendency. Cotton goods are still firm.

Bacon and Flour find a market at our quotations.

Trade with the Oro Fino mines continues to a limited extent. Our products find a market there at moderate remuneration. When the facilities for transportation shall be improved to an extent that we can furnish the staple articles to the miners at half the cost now charged for transportation, the consumption will be greatly increased. Living will be so much cheaper that miners can afford to work less productive claims. The high price of freight will stimulate the production of these staple articles in or near the mines; it is therefore to the interest of our transportation companies to take flour and bacon at a much less price than other goods; at the same time it will be of great advantage to the Willamette valley. Transportation men! look to the interests of the Willamette valley. You will thereby advance your own interests; you will increase the population in the mining districts, increase the amount of freights, increase the amount of money in the valley, and in your purse.

We have San Francisco commercial news to the 17th, by the Sierra Nevada. The Alta of the 18th says—"There has been more doing to-day in Flour than for some days past, and the enquiry for milling wheat is more animated, accompanied by some improvement in price. Buyers of Wheat for export are in the market, but holders are not disposed to accept the prices offered, preferring rather to send supplies into store than to accede to the current rates.

"Costa Rica Coffee to the amount of 200 sacks sold at auction at 20½ cts. The sale was then stopped."

Wheat is quoted at San Francisco, at $1 30 a $1 45. Flour, $4 37 for exportation. Sugar, China, at auction, 9½ cts.

Legal Notice.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County. A. M. A. Blanchet, Complainant, vs. Oswald Travaillot, Defendant. In Chancery.

TO OSWALD TRAVAILLOT, Defendant: You are hereby notified that A. M. A. Blanchet has this day filed in my office his bill of complaint, and commenced a suit against you, in which he claims that on the tenth day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, you made and delivered to him a certain promissory note for the sum of six hundred dollars, payable ten months after date, with interest at the rate of two per cent. per month, and at the same time made, acknowledged and delivered a certain mortgage deed upon lots numbered three and four in block number three, in Couch's claim or addition to the City of Portland, in the county aforesaid, as security for the payment of said note; and complainant prays for a decree of foreclosure and for the sale of the said mortgaged premises to pay the amount due upon said mortgage, to-wit: The sum of six hundred dollars and interest as aforesaid since the twentieth of September, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, and for a judgment against you for any balance which may remain unpaid after the application of the proceeds of the sale of said property for the payment of said debt. And you are further notified that unless you appear in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah on the second Monday of November, A. D. 1861, and then and there answer the said bill of complaint, the same will be taken as confessed, and the prayer thereof will be granted by the Court.

[L. S.] In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of this Court this 12th day of August, A. D. 1861.

JOHN C. BUTTERWORTH'S

CELEBRATED

CHEMICAL SOFT SOAP.

THE CHEAPEST, MOST ECONOMICAL AND LABOR-saving Soap ever discovered.

PATENTED OCTOBER, 1860.

This Soap recommends itself for the following reasons: It is not only the best soap in use for the wash-tub and the toilet, but it is far the cheapest; washing is performed with half the labor required by other soaps; it removes all paint, tar and grease from woolen and cotton goods; in a word, it is the great desideratum of the age.

☞ Put up in five and ten pound cans. Each can warranted to make sixty and one hundred and twenty pounds respectively.

Full directions for making accompany each can.

"This soap will work its way into every Laundry, Bathroom and Kitchen in the United States."—Providence Journal.

No family should be without Butterworth's Chemical Soap, as it is not only the best but cheapest soap in use.—Boston Journal.

Of all diseases the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Stricture, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is but rarely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

The afflicted are reminded that my Institute has been in successful operation for fifteen years of practice and is sanctioned by the [illegible] most remarkable cures, as [illegible] to every part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All communications strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements, authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of humanity imperiously command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted:

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the various practices of uncontrolled passion in youth, oppressed in body and mind, unfitted to perform even the most trifling duties imposed upon me, [illegible] the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my case as of trifling importance, but alas, after a few weeks, and in several instances months, of their treatment, I found to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief my symptoms became more alarming in their tendency, and being told by one that the disease, being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my mind became clear, and my nerves collected; the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the trembling of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropic aversion to society and want of confidence in myself, the involuntary [illegible] and the frightful excitement of my imagination, which made the night [illegible], have all disappeared, and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor I felt as if inspired with new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guide the unfortunate from the paths of the destroyer, I make this statement, and I freely offer to testify to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of his care and advice, being assured by my own experience, that they, under his care, a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

B. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, County of San Francisco:
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April, A. D. 1861. Signed,
[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 3d, 1861.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your institute, with my constitution, as I thought, broken entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves so that I would not get excited and trembling at anything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from the symptoms, and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the entire stoppage of those emissions, which you said were principally the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully got my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, as I think, myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours, THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation not only as an act of scientific skill but that of humanity also. About two years ago I suddenly, and by causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with in attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet despised the miseries of my life and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me in my danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my misery. While in this state and having [illegible] my afflictions lasted [illegible] I came here and was induced to think seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances and of my inability to reward him for his services, [illegible] which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God I was soon to my great joy restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the benefit which I enjoy at present, and yet considering it my indispensable duty to myself and all afflicted to make this case public, in order that those suffering similar may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
